FOR AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION ONLY

Senator Thinks National and
State Issues Would Confuse
Important Issues, Mugler
Not Fully Determined

Delaware C. W. Mugler of Newport News is not definitely determined upon approval or disapproval of the proposal of State Senator John A. Lamm, of Norfolk, for a special election next year upon the amendments to the Virginia constitution to be voted upon by the electorate. Senator Lamm proposes such a special election in order to confine the vote to the amendments to the constitution, which would be held in the fall of 1928.

Senator Lamm, of Norfolk, and the legislature have been discussing the proposal of the amendments to the constitution for some time. The amendments are of a technical nature and are not of a political nature. Senator Lamm is of the opinion that the amendments are of a technical nature and are not of a political nature. He is of the opinion that the amendments are of a technical nature and are not of a political nature.
